Attendees: Messrs. FILLIOZAT, ZINK, BERNARD, JARRIGE, DENTZER, LARONDE, GRIMAL VERELLEN, SODINI, PICARD, Morel and Ms. Caubet.
Excused: Messrs. LECLANT, ROBIN, Guilaine.

Three applications are presented to the committee:

- Ms. Frédérique Brunet, born in 1973, by Mr. JARRIGE (The Neolithic Culture of Kel’Teminar in Uzbekhistan: Study of the Neolithisation Process in Central Asia).
- Mr. Jean-Louis Biscop, born in 1951, by Mr. SODINI (Research on the Great Pilgrimage Center of Saint Symeon the Stylite in Deir Sem’an and Qal’at Sem’an, Syria, during Late Antiquity: Architecture and monumental organization, modalities of the Cult and Life of the Pilgrims).
- Mr. Antoine Hermary, born in 1949, presented by Ms. Caubet, with the support from Messrs. PICARD, GRIMAL and Morel (Works and Projects in Amathonte).

After a round table discussion followed by a vote, the majority of the attendees decides to award the prize to Mr. Antoine Hermary to support his research on the site of Amathonte (Cyprus) and subsidize the publication of various monuments.

2010 Prize Winner: Antoine Hermary

- Born in 1949
- Graduate of the École normale supérieure
- Agrégation in Classical Studies (1972)
- Member of the École française d’Athènes (1976-1980)
- 3rd cycle Doctorate (1978)
- Research Associate, then Research Fellow and Research Director, 2nd Class, at the CNRS (1980-1991)
- Professor at the University of Provence since 1991
- Director of the Camille Jullian Center (1994-1999)
- Co-director (1979) then Director (2008) of the French excavations in Amathonte.