Attendees: Messrs. FILLIOZAT, ZINK, GERNET, BERNARD, JARRIGE, ROBERT, Vandermeersch and Grenet.
Excused: Messrs. LECLANT, VERELLEN, Thote.

Mr. FILLIOZAT opens the session. Mr. JARRIGE specifies the age requirements wished by Mr. Joseph P.Carroll for the awarding of this prize (under 55)

Mr. GERNET proposes Mr. Jean-Claude Martzloff as a candidate, a great scholar with a rare knowledge, astronomer, mathematician and China expert at the same time. Mr. FILLIOZAT expresses his great respect for M. Martzloff’s work.

Mr. BERNARD, with the support from Mr. LECLANT, excused, proposes Ms. Sève-Martinez as a candidate, a young researcher specialized in the Hellenistic world in Central Asia. Mr. JARRIGE joins in this proposition.

After a general discussion, the members of the Committee for the Joseph P. Carroll Prize, decide unanimously to award the prize to Ms. Laurianne Sève-Martinez to support her research on the Seleucid civilization in Iran and Central Asia.

2010 Prize Winner: Laurianne Sève-Martinez
详细介绍:
- 41 years old
- Field of study: History of the Middle East in the Hellenistic Period, History of the Seleucid Kingdom
- Lecturer of Greek History at the University of Paris-X
- Deputy Director of the Faculty of Social and Administrative Sciences at the University of Paris-X.
- Professor of Greek History at the University of Lille III