COMMITTEE OF THE PLOTTEL PRIZE

FOR CLASSICAL STUDIES

MINUTES OF THE SESSION

Friday June, 25th 2010

Attendees: Messrs. FILLIOZAT, TURCAN, JOUANNA, FERRARY, GOUKOWSKY, Pasquier.
Excused: Messrs. and Ms. LECLANT, ZINK, LA GENIERE, Desanges, Gros and Pernot.

Mr. FILLIOZAT opens the session. Mr. FERRARY proposes Mr. Dario Montovani as a candidate, out of regard for his activities as the director of the CEDANT (Centro di studi e ricerche sui diritti antichi) and his Colleges of Roman law held annually since 2004 and published since 2006. It appears particularly appropriate to the Comittee that under the current circumstances, the Académie shows its interest for a research center in a difficult situation.

After a general discussion, the members of the Committee for the PLOTTEL Prize, decide unanimously to award the prize to him, in order to support his activities and the publications of the CEDANT that brings together jurists and historians, a significant number of whom are French professors and students.

2010 Prize Winner: Dario Mantovani

♦ Born in 1961.
♦ Professor of Roman Law at the University of Pavia (since 1997)
♦ Director of the Department of Roman Law, History and Philosophy of Law at the University of Pavia (1998-2003).
♦ Coordinator of the Research Doctorate of Roman Law and European Legal Culture (University of Pavia, Parma, Perugia, Teramo Trento).
♦ Director of the Centre for Study and Research on Ancient Law (Cedant) University Institute of Advanced Studies in Pavia (since 2002).